Sir,

If I may, I would like to take a moment of your time to thank you for your recent assistance. Several weeks ago I had written you concerning a possible career with your organization. Subsequently I was contacted by an individual of [redacted] and an interview was arranged.

[redacted] also of that office, conducted my interview. She was both very helpful and extremely professional. If she is indicative of the caliber of individual employed by your Agency, I am attracted to an even greater degree. Unfortunately, after some research, she indicated I was not eligible for recruitment presently due to an active duty obligation with the U.S. Army. She also indicated that I was not eligible for assignment to your organization until the completion of that obligation in March of 1986. However, I will submit an application in October of 1985 as she has suggested.

Again, sir, I would like to thank you for your time and effort and say that I am most impressed.

Sincerely,

[redacted]
